

Erasmus Mundus Joint Master in Resilience in Educational Contexts

Starting October 2023

The Erasmus Mundus Joint Master in Resilience in Educational Contexts -EMJM FLOURISH is a 2 years' full-time innovative master programme that aims to build the capacity of educators and practitioners in creating resilience enhancing contexts which equip children and young people with the necessary resources and competencies to deal effectively with the challenges in their education and development. It is offered by the University of Malta (leading partner), the University of Crete, Greece; the University of Lisbon, Portugal, and Stefan Cel Mare University, Suceava, Romania and supported by five other associated partners, Dalhousie University, Canada; University of Pretoria, South Africa, Orebro University, Sweden; University of Sao Paulo, Brazil, and the European School Psychology Training Centre.

This is the first international, Joint Master Degree in Resilience in Educational Contexts led by an international consortium of higher educational institutions, providing a unique opportunity for aspiring leaders in creating resilience enhancing educational contexts and systems.

Applications for scholarships for the First Intake open in November 2022 and close on 15 February 2023.

For further information visit
➤ www.flourishproject.mt

